Dear Ms. Lu:

Congratulations on planning an E-Zone O2O International Trade Show that will facilitate the ability of international businesses to establish professional ties with New York-based entrepreneurs.

E-Zone O2O trade shows and similar events are a novel way of integrating traditional face-to-face communications with virtual sample showrooms, utilizing state of the art innovative online display technology. E-Zone O2O connections have been especially useful to global manufacturers, suppliers and retailers during the pandemic and will continue to be an important tool for businesses in a post-pandemic world.

Best wishes for a successful event that will benefit both New York businesses and future international partners.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Thomas R. Suozzi
